1. General Information about OIDAI and OIDAI Exchange Program

Overview & Contact
President	Masahiro SHINDO Ph.D.
About OIDAI	The Otemon Gakuin Educational Foundation, which started as an elementary school, was founded in 1888. Our educational foundation has now evolved into a comprehensive academic institution that extends from kindergarten through graduate school. Otemon Gakuin University (OIDAI) is a university of the humanities and social sciences located in Osaka, Japan. The university was founded in 1966 and has been vigorously engaged in international exchange programs. Based on our educational principle of “We at Otemon strive to cultivate solid self-reliance and well-rounded interpersonal skills, in order to promote individual freedom and social harmony”, the university has sent out into the world many individuals equipped with international perspectives.

Location
OIDA I is situated in Ibaraki City, Osaka Prefecture, in the serene suburbs of Osaka City, which is the largest city in western Japan and a key economic center alongside Tokyo. Its location serves as a gateway to two incredible experiences within a 30-minute train ride. To the east, you'll discover the historic charm of Kyoto, with its ancient temples and cultural heritage. To the west, lies the cosmopolitan city of Kobe, known for its international flair and scenic waterfront. Beyond these urban adventures, the surrounding natural beauty offers a tranquil escape throughout the seasons. From cherry blossoms in spring to vibrant foliage in autumn, OIDA I offers the perfect blend of urban convenience and access to Japan's cultural and natural treasures.	 https://www.otemon.ac.jp/english/international/aboutOIDAI/facilities.html

2. Academic Programs

Subjects

JAPAN PROGRAM (Credit-bearing)

5 credit-bearing subjects are taught in English in each semester, focusing on several facets of Japan ranging from Culture, Literature, to Business, and Society. You are able to earn 2 credits for each and thus can take up to 10 credits back to your home institution in a semester. Please consult to the mobility office at your institution on transferring the credits to your study.

All subjects of JAPAN PROGRAM are taught in English and you will be asked to read materials, discuss topics, submit reports, and make a presentation in English in and outside the class. OIDA does not have any concrete requirements for English; It is recommended for those who are not native English speakers to maintain a certain English level: TOEIC600/TOEFL iBT 48/IELTS 4.5.

Please visit the website for details.

Academic Package

Aiming at helping each student ponder and plan her/his learning during the exchange, OIDA offers three typical learning Packages (or models) corresponding to respective interests/motives/goals/objectives set for the exchange program. Each student will be asked to choose one out of the three packages in the Application Form. Each package has its own MANDATORY components and optional ones.

Japan Study Package

If you are interested in Japan and are hungry for anything about Japan, this is the best package for you. On top of the mandatory Japanese Language Courses, you will be required to register three or more subjects from the five subjects of Japan Program. We strongly recommend students in this package to register all five Japan Program subjects, to get comprehensive understanding of Japan.

Since the subjects of Japan Program are taught in English, you are strongly advised to maintain a high English proficiency. By picking up this package, students will learn Japanese language and foster a profound and comprehensive understanding of Japan from the cultural, social, and

Components of this Package ( : Compulsory / : Optional)

3. Campus Life

Accommodation

During the exchange period, you have three accommodation options to choose from: living in a dormitory with meals provided, renting an apartment for added privacy, or immersing yourself in Japanese family life through a homestay experience! For more details, please visit our website.

<https://www.otemon.ac.jp/english/international/campusLife/housing.html>

Scholarship (Housing Aid)

This aid is paid to support exchange students for their housing expenses.

Qualifications	Inbound exchange students who must pay their own house rent in Japan are eligible for this aid.
Monthly Stipend	20,000yen
Payment period	Spring semester	April – July	4 months
	Fall semester	October – January	4 months
	2 semesters	Apr.-Jul. and Oct.-Jan.	8 months

\**All international students who receive our scholarships have to open bank accounts with Mitsui Sumitomo Bank. Before leaving back home country, the accounts need to be closed.*

Insurance and Coverage

 Overseas Travel Insurance Comprehensive Insurance for Students Lives &amp; National Health Insurance   1month from Departure April 1 to Leaving Japan
Overseas Travel Insurance	Each student is recommended to take out overseas travel insurance in your country which covers 1month from your departure date.
Comprehensive Insurance for Students Lives 【Mandatory】	All international students MUST be covered by comprehensive Insurance for Students Lives designated by OIDA. Please read the insurance policy and sign the consent form included in the application package. Students will be required to purchase the insurance during the orientation. Refer to the attached

	04.InsurancePolicy.pdf for the details. The pamphlet for 2024 is not ready yet, so the contents are subject to change.
National Health Insurance 【Mandatory】	In addition to the comprehensive insurance, all exchange students registered for residential status (and staying longer than 3 months) are required to sign up for the Japan National Health Insurance after arrival in the municipal community of their residence. The program is administered through local governments and funded by participants' premiums, with subsidies from both the national and prefectural governments. Premiums vary, depending on such factors as the applicant's annual income earned in Japan and the number of dependents, with the minimum being approximately JPY 2,000 per month. International students, however, may apply for a reduction to the premium at the time of application by declaring that they have not received any income in Japan during the previous year. The maximum rate of reduction is 70%. The Japan National Health Insurance policy covers 70% of the cost of general medical and dental care and hospitalization, depending on where the insured resides and the policies of the local governments there.

Social Program

OIDAI student exchange program does not omit the best part of study abroad program; Through our social program, you are able to meet and mingle with OIDAI students.

On/Off Campus Jobs

Working at E-CO	Opportunities to work on campus are provided at English Café at Otemon (E-CO), the university's custom-made self-access learning center for languages. You can become a facilitator for English group conversation sessions, or run occasional workshops about your university, your interests or aspects of your cultures. Working at E-CO is a great way to make lots of Japanese friends on campus. Opportunities to teach or share languages other than English may also be available depending on demand.
Off Campus Jobs	In principle, one-semester exchange students are only allowed to work on campus as they need to focus on their studies during the semester. Exchange students staying for two semesters can engage in off-campus part-time work during their second semester within the legal limits.

Once the COE is issued by the Japanese immigration bureau, we will send it to your home institution by trackable mailing method like DHL or EMS. Then, receive the original documents including COE from your home institution, and apply for a visa at the nearest Japanese embassy/consulate with the following documents.

1. Valid passport
2. One visa application form, completed and signed
3. One passport-sized photograph (taken within last 6 months)
4. Original COE
5. One photocopy of COE

***Documents required for visa applications are subject to change, so be sure to check for the latest information by checking with and contacting Japanese embassy/consulate in respective country before visiting there and submitting documents.

+++Important+++

We do not allow exchange students to do any other activities such as sightseeing in Japan before and after the period of study at OIDA I on the student visa. If you want to stay longer in Japan before or after the exchange period, then please consult to the Embassy/Consulate of Japan nearby on the visa arrangement.

Step2. Prepare for travel to Japan

Flight ticket & Travel Insurance

Once your visa is granted, you will need to

- Purchase the flight ticket arriving in Osaka (KIX) Japan. (The date will be decided and announced by OIDA later.)
- Purchase travel insurance. (Optional, but recommended.)

After you secure above, report the flight (and insurance) information to OIDA by the end of March.

Step3. Two Weeks before Your Departure

Visit Japan Web

<https://vjw-lp.digital.go.jp/ja/>

Japanese/English/Chinese/Korean available

- Registering in advance here can help streamline the immigration process. It's not mandatory, but we highly recommend it.

Permission to Engage in Activity

This form is needed to participate in on/off-campus jobs and get paid. Prepare the application named "Permission to Engage in Activity", and send the copy to OIDA via email. The original must be submitted to the immigration office upon entry into Japan (DO NOT pack in checked baggage on airplanes).

誓約書提出のお願い

Request for Submission of Consent Form

日本国政府は 2022 年 3 月から、受入機関による徹底的な新型コロナウイルス感染症対策及び滞在の管理を条件として、外国人の新規入国の許可を開始いたしました。これに従い、追手門学院大学は、以下の入国前後の手続きおよび行動に関する遵守事項に誓約いただける交換留学生の方を、交換留学生として受入れることを決定いたしました。以下の内容をご確認の上、ご誓約いただける方は 16 ページの「誓約書」にご署名いただき、他の交換留学申請書類と併せて 2023 年 10 月 31 日までに国際連携企画課へご提出下さい。

The Government of Japan has begun permitting new foreign nationals to enter Japan from March 2022, subject to thorough countermeasures against the COVID-19 and control of their stay in Japan by the host institution. In accordance with this framework, Otemon Gakuin University (OIDAI) has decided to accept exchange students who pledge to abide by the following procedures and conduct before and after their entry into Japan. Please read the following information carefully and, if you are willing to make the commitment, please sign on page.16 “Consent Form of Conditions on Exchange Program with COVID-19” and submit it together with other exchange student application documents to the Division of International Cooperation and Planning by October 31, 2023.

遵守事項 Guidelines

1 . 日本政府が定める水際対策等の順守 Compliance with Respect to the New Border measures.

- ( 1 ) 新型コロナウイルス感染症の感染防止対策を含め、日本政府が施行する水際対策に従うこと。その際、対策の必要に応じて大学が学外機関と留学生に関する情報を共有することについて同意すること。

International students must follow the border control measures enforced by the Japanese government, including measures to prevent the transmission of the COVID-19. In doing so, they should agree that the university will share information on international students with external organizations as necessary for countermeasures.

- ( 2 ) 留学生は、大学へ提出した情報や旅程に変更が生じた場合には、遅滞なく大学へ共有すること。

International students should share any changes in the information or itinerary submitted to the University without delay.

- ( 3 ) 留学生は、大学の指示に従い、感染及びその拡大防止に努めること。

International students should follow the instructions of the University to prevent infection and its spread.

- ( 4 ) 留学生は、検疫法、感染症の予防及び感染症の患者に対する医療に関する法律、出入国管理及び難民認定法等の水際制度関連法令を遵守すること。

International students must comply with the laws and regulations related to the New Border measures, including the Quarantine Law, the Law Concerning Prevention of Infectious Diseases and Medical Care for Infectious Patients, and the Immigration Control and Refugee Recognition Act.

- ( 5 ) 留学生は、上記の誓約に違反した場合又は入国時の検疫の際に誓約する誓約書の内容に違反した場合（いずれも不実の記載があった場合を含む。）には、政府より在留資格の取消しや大学より受入れ中止などの判断があり、これに従うこと。

If an international student violates the above pledge or violates the contents of the written pledge that is pledged at the time of quarantine at the time of entry (including cases of misrepresentation in either case), the international student shall be subject to the following. In such cases, the government may revoke the student's status of residence, or the university may suspend the student's enrollment, and the student must comply with the decision.

2 . その他順守事項 Other Compliance

- ( 1 ) 留学生は、出発国を出国する時に、大学が指定する条件を満たす民間医療保険（滞在期間中の医療費を補償する旅行保険を含む。）に加入していること。

International students must have private medical insurance that meets the requirements specified by the University (including travel insurance that covers medical expenses during the period of stay) at the time of departure from the country of departure.

- ( 2 ) 留学生は、今後の新型コロナウイルス感染症の急拡大などの状況により、交換留学が中止となる可能性があることを理解すること。

International students should understand that their exchange program may be cancelled in the future due to circumstances such as the rapid expansion of COVID-19.

- ( 3 ) 留学生は、航空機遅延、入院、隔離などの事象による、授業が受けられず単位修得ができない可能性や、航空券及び宿舎のキャンセル・再予約の可能性について認識しておくこと。

International students should be aware of the possibility that they may not be able to attend classes and earn credits due to events such as flight delays, hospitalization, or quarantine, and that they may have to cancel and rebook their airline tickets and housing.

- ( 4 ) 留学生は、国際連携企画課職員と連絡が取れる本国の携帯電話番号と LINE 又は WeChat を用意し実際に連絡を試行すること。

International students are required to prepare a cell phone number and LINE or WeChat account in their home country to contact the staff of the Division of International Cooperation and Planning and to actually try to contact them.

- ( 5 ) 留学生は、留学期間中は、本学が独自に定める新型コロナウイルス感染拡大防止に基づく行動基準に服すること。

International students must abide by the standards of conduct based on the prevention of the spread of the COVID-19 during their period of study in Japan, which are independently established by the University.

- ( 6 ) 留学生は、上記の遵守事項以外に、日本国政府若しくは関係省庁等より追加の対策を取るよう指示があった場合には、大学の監督の下でこれに従うこと。同じく、大学が追加で指定する指示に従うこと。

In addition to the above compliance requirements, international students must comply with any instructions from the Japanese government or relevant ministries and agencies to take additional measures under the supervision of the University. Likewise, they are to follow any additional instructions specified by the University.

( 7 ) 上に係る一切の追加費用は、学生本人が負担すること。

All additional costs related to the above must be borne by the student.
